FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

We are pleased to announce that Daniel J. Gross has been elevated to the position of Partner with Myers Wolin, LLC (“the Firm”). Daniel counsels clients ranging from Fortune 100 to startup companies on a full range of intellectual property services, including patent and trademark prosecution, opinions, agreement negotiations and litigation. Since joining the Firm in 2012, Daniel has consistently demonstrated leadership both within and outside of the Firm in the form of developing numerous new client relationships, functioning as a go-to attorney for internal staff and other associates, establishing partnerships with and operating as a primary resource for various tech incubators, and conducting speaking engagements before numerous organizations worldwide. Clients have repeatedly praised Daniel’s unique combination of technical acumen and business strategy and this has resulted in organic growth amongst the Firm’s existing client base while spawning numerous referrals and new lines of business within the Firm. Daniel has also consistently demonstrated the importance of owning a client relationship from the point of generation and maintaining that relationship through portfolio development and client challenges. Daniel currently holds leadership positions in INTA (International Trademark Association) and the Futureworks incubator. We look forward to Daniel’s continued growth and leadership within Firm.
